

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA, NORTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
)	CRIMINAL ACTION NO.
v.)	2:17cr436-MHT
)	(WO)
DONNELL MARICUS WOODS)

OPINION AND ORDER

This cause is before the court defendant Donnell Maricus Woods's motion to continue. Based on the representations made on the record on November 14, 2017, and for the reasons set forth below, the court finds that jury selection and trial, now set for December 4, 2017, should be continued pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

While the granting of a continuance is left to the sound discretion of the trial judge, United States v. Stitzer, 785 F.2d 1506, 1516 (11th Cir. 1986), the court is limited by the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161. The Act provides in part:

"In any case in which a plea of not guilty is entered, the trial of a defendant charged in an information or indictment with the commission of an offense shall commence within seventy days from the filing date (and making public) of the information or indictment, or from the date the defendant has appeared before a judicial officer of the court in which such charge is pending, whichever date last occurs."

§ 3161(c)(1). The Act excludes from the 70-day period any continuance based on "findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial." § 3161(h)(7)(A). In granting such a continuance, the court may consider, among other factors, whether the failure to grant the continuance would "result in a miscarriage of justice," § 3161(h)(7)(B)(i), or "would deny counsel for the defendant ... reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence." § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

The court concludes that, in this case, the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the interest of the public and Woods in a speedy trial. Woods is charged with three counts of possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance: one each for methamphetamine, cocaine, and marijuana. In order to prepare for trial, defense counsel must review all discovery, including lab reports from the government about the purity and quantity of the drugs in question. Without these reports, defense counsel cannot advise his client on how to proceed. Defense counsel has requested these reports from the government, and the government anticipates they will be available for defense counsel's review on November 28, 2017, just six days before the present trial date. The present trial date therefore does not afford counsel for Woods sufficient time to review these reports, confer with Woods about how to proceed, and, if they so decide, prepare for trial. Accordingly, a continuance is warranted and necessary to allow counsel enough time to prepare adequately and effectively for jury selection and trial.

The government does not object to a continuance.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:

(1) The motion for continuance of defendant Donnell Maricus Woods (doc. no. 17) is granted.

(2) The jury selection and trial, now set for December 4, 2017, are reset for January 16, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., in Courtroom 2FMJ of the Frank M. Johnson Jr. United States Courthouse Complex, One Church Street, Montgomery, Alabama.

DONE, this the 15th day of November, 2017.
